

Radovan Fuchs

Minister of Science and Education

Curriculum vitae

- Dr. Sc. Radovan Fuchs, professor,
- born 5 September 1953 in Zagreb,
- married, father of two children.

Education

- 1987 – doctorate in biomedical sciences in the areas of pharmacology and toxicology, Biomedical Centre, Uppsala, Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm, Sweden,
- 1985 – master’s degree in biomedical sciences, University of Zagreb,
- 1978 – graduated at the Faculty of Veterinary Medicine at the University of Zagreb.

Career

- 2012 – assistant to the director for international cooperation, Institute for Medical Research and Occupational Health,
- 2018 - 2019 – special adviser to the President of the Government of the Republic of Croatia,
- 2009 - 2012 – Minister of Science, Education and Sports,
- 2008 - 2009 – Secretary of State, Ministry of Science, Education and Sports,
- 2004 - 2008 – assistant to the Minister, Ministry of Science, Education and Sports,
- 2001 - 2003 – science adviser, Institute for Medical Research and Occupational Health,
- 2000 - 2001 – director, state-owned enterprise ZGOS,
- 1993 - 2000 – assistant to the Minister, Ministry of Science and Technology,
- 1991 - 1993 – research associate – researcher, Institute for Medical Research and Occupational Health,
- 1988 - 1993 – senior research associate – head researcher, Institute for Medical Research and Occupational Health,
- 1985 - 1987 – research assistant, Biomedical Centre, Uppsala, Royal Institute of Technology Stockholm, Sweden,
- 1979 - 1984 – research assistant, Institute for Medical Research and Occupational Health.

Party Duties

- member of the chairpersons of the Science and Education Committee of the Croatian Democratic Union (HDZ),
- member of the Croatian Democratic Union.

Languages

- English,
- Russian,
- German.

Other

- Published over 100 original scientific papers,
- Co-authored 11 books in the fields of science and research, 10 of which were internationally published.